Still need members to handle subdivisions

Historical Society – They have a new plaque; they were directed by the board to contact the county to assist in installation. Have been cataloging historical items, brought in a quilt made from square from 1911 and asked for permission to hang quilt in town hall. Quilt left at Town hall and Supervisor Wing will see that it gets hung. All board members in favor. They are in need of someone to get involved in the society. They also have historical calendars available to the public free of charge they would like to bring down to the town hall.

County Rep: Jerry Madsen

What issues would you like to bring to our new county rep's attention? Would like the new county rep to come and introduce himself to the town so everyone can meet him.
